Director General Directives

CONDUCT DURING EXAMINATION OR TEST

1. Introduction

- 1.1 In exercise of the powers conferred by Regulation 202 of the Civil Aviation Regulations 2016, the Director General makes this Director General Directives ("Directives").
- 1.2 These Directives are published by the Director General under section 240 of the Civil Aviation Act 1969 [Act 3].
- 1.3 These Directives shall come into force on 24 October 2017.

2. Application

These Directives shall apply to any person who sit for any examination or test under the Civil Aviation Regulations 2016.

3. Prohibition

No person shall—

- (a) take any book, paper, document or other materials except those authorized by the invigilator into or out of an examination room;
- (b) receive any book, paper, document or other material from any other person while in the examination room except that the person may, while he is in the examination room receive from the invigilator such book, paper, document or other material;
- (c) take any mobile phone, computer or other electronic devices into an examination room unless the person leaves it with the invigilator;
- (d) use any mobile phone, computer or other electronic devices except those authorized by the invigilator during an examination or test;
- (e) write, or have it written by any other person, any information or diagram which may be relevant to the examination or test he is sitting for, on his hand or on any other part of his anatomy, or on his apparel or clothing;
- (f) communicate with any other person during an examination or test by any means whatsoever unless with the invigilator; or
- (g) cheat or attempt to cheat or conduct himself in a manner which can be construed as cheating or attempting to cheat in an examination or test, while the examination or test is being conducted.
